Preferred Citation

Civil War soldiers photograph collection, Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library

Historical Note

---

The photographs housed in these three cartes-de-visite albums were compiled at the request of the Governor of the State of Indiana in 1865. The request was for a collection of standard-size photographs to "perpetuate the remembrance" of Indiana regiment officers.

---

Scope and Contents

---

This collection includes three photograph albums from Governor Oliver P. Morton in Indianapolis, Indiana ranging from 1861 to 1865 regarding Civil War regiment officers.

---

Arrangement

---

The photographs are arranged alphabetically by officer's last name; notations on the album pages below each photograph indicate each officer's name, rank, regiment, and if applicable, place of death.
